MARKUS GE

FRONTEND DESIGNER

ABOUT MYSELF

Hi, I'm Markus

I turn coffee ☕ into code and ideas into reality — e.g., Frontend Engineer crafting fast, accessible web experiences with React, TypeScript, and delightful micro-interactions.

A curious and creative aspiring web developer passionate about building engaging front-end experiences. I love experimenting with new technologies and bringing ideas to life through clean, interactive designs. When I'm not coding, I enjoy exploring design trends, learning new skills, and working on fun side projects. My goal is to become a skilled front-end developer who creates websites that are both beautiful and user-friendly.
